“Get started with Polo week”

You can always “stick and ball” at the estancia. Beginners are welcome and encouraged to try this noble sport.

“Get started with Polo week”

A “get started with polo week” with an in house tournament will take place for the 1st and 2nd week of December and guests are very welcome. This week of polo can be arranged at most times of the year with a minimum of four players. Professional polo tuition is also available.

- Stick and ball, polo lessons followed by chukkas
- Riding on the farm, including farm activities when they are going on
- Ride the Paso Peruano horses
- Accommodation at the Estancia
- Full board, appetizers, and drinks
- A wine tasting evening of local wines
- Airport transfers from Cordoba

The Polo week is an introduction to polo. It is aimed at the novice or occasional player who would like to improve their Polo but also enjoy varied and interesting rides in fabulous countryside. “We would like polo to be cheerful and fun, with no pressure or embarrassment, a starter course”.

In a typical day a two to three hour morning ride will be followed by lunch at the estancia, or a picnic if out doing some cattle work. Swimming, a siesta or reading a book will fill the warm hours. After tea we ride to the polo ground and take a lesson playing some chukkas at the end of the day. Some times this sequence is reversed. Candle-lit dinners back at the farm follow.

We hope to prepare you for a mini tournament at the end of the week when local players may visit or go to the village and “play away” representing Los Potreros in the team colours. All of this takes place in a beautiful setting allowing you to explore the hills and a traditional way of life.

Los Potreros can provide you with polo gear during your stay, however we strongly recommend that you bring your own boots, gloves and helmet to guarantee a comfortable fit.

“Our success is that even though accomplished players have their contacts, there is a larger market for riders who have always fancied a “go” at polo. We are offering a holiday that way exceeds the average polo estancia because Los Potreros offers adventure in a beautiful landscape, excellent horses and all within a real country environment. We are not swanky about polo but it would be wrong to underrate our farmers polo”.
