Ungefärligt program dag för dag (reservation för ändringar):

A wonderful horseback riding get-away on the Pacific Coast of Costa Rica. We explore Playa Hermosa, stop at waterfalls, natural spring fed pools and then venture off into the hills and canyons with tropical vegetation along the Route of the Conquistadores - a ride you will not soon forget. We then work our way from Bijuel over the mountain range to Playa Hermosa, where the next day brings a long day in the saddle, but the scenery with the ocean views will keep you enthralled. On the final day we will explore Hacienda Agujas. Another great ride through pastures and hills down to another beach area for the last fix of beach riding. A wonderful riding trip comes to an end.

Day 2: Meet & Greet at the San Jose International Airport.

Your driver will pick you up at the airport in the early afternoon and then starts out for Playa Hermosa. Overnight Hotel Tortuga del Mar. (Breakfast)

Day 3: Playa Hermosa – Waterfall & Spa ride

Ride with through acres of breathtakingly beautiful landscape. Meander through shaded Virgin Forest trails and into the canopy, spot the families of monkeys, coati, and other animals that live in this natural lost valley. Gallop across open farm land surrounded by towering rainforest trees. Arrive at our secret waterfall and recharge your batteries; sit and relax in our natural spring fed pools, whilst experiencing the rejuvenating properties of the natural spa mud that is found in abundance around the spring. Riding back to playa Hermosa as the sun goes down...overnight Hotel Tortuga del Mar...Riding time 4-5 hours with lunch and snacks included. (Lunch).

Day 4: Mountain Ride

The mountain ride passes through hand cut Virgin Forest trails, twist and turn around ancient Guancaste trees that take you to the beautiful Quebrada Blanca. Cascades fall through the stunning forest, cool your feet in the crystal clear water whilst enjoying a refreshing fruit drink. We start here our ascent to the top of the mountains that surround the lost valley of La Quina. Past through the habitats of small wild cats, and deer and live peacefully in the hills. The view from the top is truly magnificent, feel the wind in your hair and gaze out over the ocean and forest below. The horses are very fit, sure footed and they love their job. Riding time 4 plus hours with lunch included.. Overnight at Hotel Tortuga del Mar. (Lunch).

Day 5: Fast Pace Beach Riding

The beach at Palo Seco for one of Costa Rica's most exciting beach rides! This is a long stretch of beach where you can gallop with your horse in the surf. Lunch at La Isla then return to Playa Hermosa. There is time this afternoon to do an optional Canopy (ZipLine Tour) or perhaps you might like to take an optional surf lesson. or perhaps do some shopping in the nearby town of Jaco Beach.

Overnight Tortuga del Mar. (Lunch).

Day 6: Hamlet ride

Step off the tourist trail and enjoy a visit to the real Costa Rica. Ride from La Quina along the old San Jose road to the villages of Montalimar, visit the Garden of Haliconias and Orchids. Stop for a traditional lunch in the village before descending into the river area of Mata de Platano. Follow the river Tulin back to the lost valley of La Quina. A wonderful day out with a real chance to interact with the locals. Riding time 5 hours includes lunch overnight Tortuga del Mar. (Lunch).

Day 7: Playa Bejuca Beach Ride:

This is a once in a life time experience. Ride through the tiny coastal hamlet of Esterillos to one of the longest beaches in Costa Rica. Riding south along the beach, you will experience the adrenaline rush of galloping the horses along the sands at the edge of the pacific ocean. Arriving at Playa Bejuco, we strip off the saddles, jump on board and take the horses for a swim in the ocean. After a beach picnic, relax in the hammock and recharge your batteries, whilst the horses nap under the palm trees beside you. Riding time 4-5 hours...Overnight Tortuga del Mar. (Lunch).

Day 8: Piedras Negros Ride

After breakfast transfer via the very scenic route of Puriscal to the area of El Rodeo here we ride through incredible forest and river to Piedras Negro. The horses love the cool river where they can splash around and rest. Troupes of monkeys often pass through these beautiful trails. Overnight Hotel El Rodeo Breakfast and lunch included this day, dinner on your own. (Lunch).

Day 8: Depart Costa Rica

Transfer out to the San Jose International Airport... depart. (Breakfast).
